PROF. WOLFORD'S COMMERCIAL SUMMER SCHOOL

Attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement in our classified columns of Prof. Earl Y. Wolford's commercial school, which is scheduled to open, May 21 for the summer months. His department is one of the most popular in high school education, and he will give this summer course to meet the demand of college students, high school graduates and undergraduates who want some of the courses or all of them in typewriting, shorthand, bookkeeping or business English. Prof. Wolford received his education in the State Teacher's college at Denton, Southern Methodist university and Texas university; also in leading business colleges of Dallas. He has been teaching in the McKinney public school for sixteen years, eleven of which he has been head of the commercial department, the position he is now occupying. Prof. Wolford has proven himself to be very successful in his specialty. His pupils, when they come from his instruction, get and hold the very best positions. If you are interested you should see him right away to talk the matter over and make definite arrangements.

On account of illness, Judge George P. Brown was unable to teach his Men's Bible class at the First Methodist church Sunday. C. P. Heard, veteran McKinney business man and the oldest member of that church, substituted for Judge Brown and taught an exceedingly interesting lesson. After he concluded, at the request of the class members, Judge Wallace Hughston made a brief talk on the approaching Quadrennial Conference of the Southern Methodist denomination, which convenes at Jackson, Mississippi, May 25, and will continue in session for three weeks. Judge Hughston is chairman of the Lay delegation of the North Texas Annual Conference to this general conference, which is the only lawmaking power of that church, and which meets only once every four years.

CULLEOKA TRIMS WOODMEN NINE

One of the best baseball games ever unreeled in McKinney was staged at Woodmen Park here over the week-end, as the strong Culleoka team defeated the hustling Woodmen Woodchoppers, 5-1, in an exhibition game. "Jelly" Patterson for the Woodmen and Bo Spurgin of the Culleoka lads hooked up in a tight pitching duel, Spurgin won his own game in the seventh inning, scoring the tieing run. The Woodmen got their score when Walter Apple walked, stole second was sacrificed to third and came home on an infield hit, or sacrifice.

The Woodmen open their season on April 28 against Sherman.

J. Pat Mulden, Box B, Capital Station, Austin, Texas, sends the Daily Courier-Gazette renewal subscription to July 1, 1934. Pat is a native of this county and a former County Clerk before going to Austin several years ago where he has held a post of honor and responsibility in the State Comptroller's office ever since. The State has no better man in it than J. Pat Moulden. He is a brother of former County Judge H. L. Moulden of this city.

THREE-FOURTHS INCH RAINFALL IS RECORDED

SHOWERS, BEGINNING EARLY TODAY, STILL FALLING AT NOON

Rainfall amounting to .70 of an inch fell in McKinney up unan inch fell in McKinney Wednesday, according to measurements on the rain gauge of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, of this city. The rain, which commenced falling here about midnight last night continued with only slight abatement throughout the morning. It was of the slow, steady soaking type.

According to County Farm Agent Jack P. McCullough, the rain will prevent farmers from planting their cotton a little longer than usual. They have already been delayed a bit, due to several other rains of this showery type in the past few days.

Wheat, corn and onions will not likely be affected by the precipitation.

The weather forecast was for continued showers for McKinney and vicinity with unsettled weather conditions prevailing for the next twenty-four hours.

The Fifth Sunday Singing convention will be held at the Christian church at Allen Sunday, April 29, beginning at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. Lunch will be served at the noon hour. Singers will be present not only from this county, but also from Dallas, Grayson, Fannin and other counties. Officials are expecting this to be a great day. Anyone who likes to sing or who enjoys hearing good singing is invited to attend.

More yards in McKinney are beautified by pretty Texas bluebonnets, this year, than ever before. The pretty little, wild native Texas flowers are admired by everybody. It seems like more and more housewives are determined to adorn their premises with their growth during the early spring days every year. Perhaps the largest bed of bluebonnets in our city is that at the home of Mrs. Henry E. Morgan, corner of South Chestnut and Christian streets. Mrs. Morgan is a dear lover of flowers and has quite an assortment of them in addition to her bluebonnets. Many are visiting her home or driving along the streets by it, just to see her pretty blooming bluebonnets.

The Anna Pearent-Teacher association held an interesting meeting at the school building there Monday afternoon, April 16. Mrs. H. G. Giles, Miss Anna Lou Powell, Miss Gertrude Arnold and C. B. Morrison were appointed on a committee to secure additional curtains for the stage. Mrs. S. J. Smith, financial chairman, reported a $37.85 profit on a negro minstrel recently given. Mrs. Frank Cox and Mrs. H. G. Giles were appointed to attend the district P.-T. A. meeting at Farmersville.

Mrs. John R. Brown of this city is in receipt of the news of the very critical illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Mathews, at the latter's home, at Graham, Texas. Mrs. Mathews is a sister of the deceased husband of Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Mathews has often visited in McKinney and made friends here who will regret to hear of her serious affliction. Her brother, Will Brown, and her sister, Mrs. Dick Mathews, both of the State of Mississippi, are at her bedside. Will Brown recently visited his sister-in-law in McKinney.

IMPROVEMENTS ABOUT COMPLETED AT ATHLETIC CLUB

Extensive improvements are being made on the Athletic club building in this city, formerly the old Elks hall. The building is being remodeled, painted and fixed up both inside and out, upstairs and downstairs. R. Fitzhugh Newsome, president of the club, states that the upstairs is just about completed. The walls have been redecorated and the floors are now being worked over.

The upstairs floor will be one of the nicest dance floors in North Texas when completed. Dances will be held monthly, for members only and for invited minors. The first dance will probably be held within the next ten days or two weeks.

The membership now numbers 150 with a waiting list of 25 at the present time. Mr. Newsome says that those desiring to join should see W. W. Hall at the Woolworth store to be placed on the waiting list.

F. Dudley Perkins, owner of the building, is fixing up the outside of the building, repainting it inside, as well.

ELD. R. C. HORN WILL PREACH AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH SUNDAY; REACHES 90TH BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK

VETERAN LOCAL CHRISTIAN MINISTER WILL BE HEARD BY LARGE CONGREGATION CHURCH MEMBERS AND FRIENDS SUNDAY MORNING.

Next Sunday morning, April 29, the members and friends of the First Christian church will honor one of the veteran and honored ministers of their church. At that time Elder R. C. Horn will have passed his ninetieth birthday and at the morning hour worship, 10:45, Elder Horn will be the preacher in the local pulpit of his church.

It is not given to many men to have lived such a long and useful life. Sometimes one may live many years without these years being filled with any useful task. Elder Horn has kept well by living in the out of doors much of the time and also he has kept a clean heart and lived an upright life. No one need wonder where this veteran minister stands on any great question of right or wrong. You know where he stands even before the question is asked.

In declaring his stand on great moral issues he has often differed radically from his friends, and yet even a foe respects an opponent who is open and above board and one who will not change with every wind that blows.

All are welcome to the public preaching service next Sunday at the First Christian church to hear this keen thinker and upstanding character, both physically and spiritually.

Following the church service, and simply for convenience, a buffet luncheon will be served in the educational building. In speaking of this dinner or luncheon, Dr. Clifford S. Weaver, the pastor, says while an open invitation to all is that which Bro. Horn desires, yet he sometimes fails to take into consideration what would be necessary should each one whom he desires accept this noon-day meal invitation. "Inasmuch as it is impossible to make provision for an attendance which must necessarily be uncertain I am making the suggestion," says Dr. Weaver, "that those who wish to eat together with Bro. Horn on this birthday anniversary plan to bring some part of the dinner just as though they were going to a picnic dinner. On this basis all will be welcome. Otherwise the family and friends have no idea what kind of preparation to make nor for how many.

"The educational building will be open early Sunday morning and Abe Johnson, the caretaker, will be present to care for any provisions which you may send before the noon hour. This is not an invitation for food only in case you expect to accept Bro. Horn's invitation, then you might like to thus assist by bringing a portion of the meal."

Any who wish to help a little in this anfversary are of course welcome to do so, but the crowds have increased so in the past few years and being on Sunday and never being sure of who or how many will come this little thoughtful courtesy is suggested by the pastor wholly on his own initiative.

Methodists At Frisco Celebrate 86th Anniversary

This marks the one hundred and fiftieth year of Methodism in America, and the one hundredth year of Methodism in Texas. In commemoration of these events and of its own eighty-sixth anniversary, the Frisco Methodist church will celebrate the first Sunday in May as Historical and Homecoming Day.

This church was organized in 1848 by Rev. Joab Biggs. It is hoped to have a grandson of Rev. Mr. Biggs, the Rev. L. D. Shawyer, of Whitesboro, preach on that day. Historical data is being gathered and will be presented on that day as a part of the program.

All former members living in reach of Frisco are invited and urged to be present. There will be dinner on the ground at noon for all.

The Frisco Methodist church is a handsome brick structure. This church was originally known as Old Bethel and was located about a mile and a half or two miles north of Frisco. The church was established there in 1848 and confined in that location until 1902 when it was moved to Frisco. The Bethel cemetery is one of the oldest burying grounds in West Collin. Two or three church buildings were erected at Bethel. While the cemetery is still being used as a burial ground, there is no church building at Bethel any more, but as stated the congregation worships at Frisco of which Rev. Ben Bell is the present pastor.

A. P. Rogers, foreman of the present grand jury, is one of the leading laymen. His ancestors helped organize the church. Rev. S. W. Miller, a veteran retired Methodist preacher, is a resident of Frisco.

The church at Frisco was organized three years before the organization of the First Methodist church at McKinney, which dates from the year, 1851. The Bethel-Frisco church is probably the oldest Methodist society now in Collin county.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cockrell and children of Sandpoint, Idaho, recently made a very pleasant visit in the home of Mrs. Cockrell's uncle, A. B. Fults, and family of McKinney. Mr. Cockrell is connected with the United States Forestry Service in Sandpoint, but for the past six months has been connected with the C. C. C. Forestry Service in Amherst, Massachusetts. They made the trip in their automobile, going and returning by the Southern route. Mr. Fults and his family greatly enjoyed the visit of his niece and fine family. He had not seen his niece since she was two years of age, when she was taken to her grandparents in Idaho after her mother died. She is the daughter of Wm. D. Saling, whose parents formerly lived on a farm in the northern part of this county.

DECORATION DAY SUNDAY AT PECAN GROVE CEMETERY

Sunday, April 29, has been designated by the Pecan Grove cemetery association as Annual Decoration day for that beautiful "Silent City" located just south of our city limits.

Decoration day was set at this particular time since flowers are at their prettiest at this spring season. In fact, a drive over the city reveals a wide variety of brilliant and fragrant blossoms of varied hues and descriptions, making it possible for everyone interested to have an abundance of beautiful bouquets with which to decorate the graves of departed loved ones and friends.

Pecan Grove cemetery is recognized as one of the best kept and preserved "Silent Cities" to be found anywhere. Sexton J. P. Lane and his workers are ever busy, keeping down all grass and weeds and otherwise adding to the attractiveness of that sacred plot of land.

The gates of the cemetery will remain open throughout the day and those who are interested may come and go any time they so desire, bringing flowers and placing them on the graves. Before the day has ended, it is expected that a majority of the graves will have at least one or more bouquets placed on them by the hands of those who revere the memories of those who sleep there.

MISS BEATRICE BURGESS BRIDE J. W. ALEXANDER

J. W. Alexander and Miss Beatrice Burgess were united in marriage at the parsonage of the First Methodist church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock with Dr. Minor Bounds officiating. The impressive ring ceremony was used. The young bride and groom left immediately for Dallas on a short wedding trip, returning here this week-end to make their home.

The groom, J. W. Alexander, is a well-known young McKinney business man, being connected with the Williams-Eubanks Wholesale Grocery company here. He has a host of friends and is popular and well-liked by every acquaintance.

The bride is one of the efficient and popular young L. A. Scott Junior High school teachers here. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. (Bill) Burgess and has a wide circle of friends and admirers, being a young lady of winsome personality.

Their many friends here wish for this happy young couple many years of happy wedded bliss.

L. P. Carr, who is taking the "rest cure" at home, is getting along nicely and will soon be up and out again, to the gratification of his many friends.

M'KINNEY PARTY RETURN FROM TEXARKANA

Gibson Caldwell and wife and W. Hammond Moore and wife are at home from Texarkana where they attended the Eighth Annual convention of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce. It was a great convention so they report. Texarkana did herself proud in the way of entertainment.

Collin county is one of seventy-one counties embraced in the East Texas Chamber of Commerce area. Collin is honored by having one of the directors in Mr. Caldwell who was elected one year ago to a three-year term and is therefore a holdover for two more years.

Collin county was greatly interested in Editor Pat Mayse of Paris being elected president of the organization this year, but Mr. Mayse declined to accept the honor.

The convention voted to meet at Henderson, next year.

W. Hammond Moore is the efficient secretary of the McKinney Chamber of Commerce and is also a leading spirit in the East Texas Chamber of Commerce organization activities. T. E. Craig is Collin county councilor for the organization.

MRS. T. P. HOWLE DIED THERE SUNDAY— BURIAL MONDAY

A near serious automobile accident occurred about 8:00 o'clock Sunday morning at Princeton in which Eugene Ward, little four-year-old son of Claude Ward and wife and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ward, all of Princeton, was struck by an auto driven by Miss Opal Horton, a Princeton teacher. While at play with some other children, the little fellow suddenly darted out in the path of the coming auto and in spite of the effort of Miss Horton to miss him, he was struck and knocked down. The little fellow sustained a broken leg between the knee and thigh and also some injured ribs. The child is now at the McKinney City hospital, where it is believed that his injuries may not prove as serious as at first thought. The accident was unavoidable by the driver of the auto. Little Eugene is a nephew of Mrs. G. O. Lowery of McKinney who informs us of the regrettable accident.

E. M. Shock, who was operated on at the City hospital, will be able to be roomved to his home in a day or so. Getting along splendidly.

PLANTS ASTEX INDIAN BEANS

Some Astex Indian beans were planted last week by Mrs. S. E. Bateman, farm food supply demonstrator of the Celina Home Demonstration club. She told Miss Helen Dunlap, County Home Demonstration agent that she obtained the seeds from a friend near Gainesville. Two years ago this friend was among a party that investigated the remains of the Cliff Dwellers in Arizona where the seeds were found. Although the Cliff Dwellers lived here many years before the discovery of America by Columbus, the seeds were found in good condition and germinated last year, producing the seeds that were planted last week.

Last year as well as this, the Batemans planted their garden on a plot of ground which formerly was in alfalfa. Across the garden fence is a tank of water which was used for irrigation purposes during the dry weather last year. By siphoning the water across and allowing it to run down the furrow between each row, last year they were able to have tomatoes and cucumbers during the driest part of the summer. It is in this fertile plot of ground that the Astex beans were planted this year.

Mrs. Bateman is well pleased with her garden spot and feels that it pays to enrich the soil by growing alfalfa and other soil building crops. Last year from less than one-eighth acre of butter beans, she states that 138 containers of the shelled beans were canned in one day. She thinks that in this country, almost any kind of vegetable can be grown on well cared for land with a supply of water to supplement rain during the dry season.

Prof. R. H. Williams, principal of John Reagan High school of Houston, was unanimously elected president of the Southeast Division, Texas State Teachers association, at the closing session of the annual conventon held at Galveston Saturday. Prof. Williams' many friends in McKinney join in congratulating him. He lived three years in McKinney during which time he was principal of the Boyd High school, in which position he was succeeded in 1926 by Prof. Jack R. Ryan, present superintendent of our city schools.

Weston home talent will present the play, "Here Comes Charlie," Saturday night, April 28, at the school building, there. Everyone is invited to attend this play, which is expected to draw a good attendance.

W. A. Schoolcraft, about 25 years of age, while playing baseball on Leland avenue Tuesday afternoon, suffered a broken leg when he fell while chasing a fly ball. He was taken to the McKinney City hospital, where he is resting as well as could be expected Wednesday morning.

RESPECTED SOUTH GRAYSON CITIZEN DIED SUNDAY

POPULAR THEATER MANAGER HELPS CLUB WOMEN

Woman's Day of the Texas Federation of Women's club was observed in McKinney Thursday, April 26. On this day, at both matinee and evening performances, Manager Roy L. Brockman of the Ritz theater gave the Federated Women's clubs of McKinney a per cent of all receipts at his theater. According to McKinney club women, their part of the proceeds will be used to help pay their part on the indebtedness on the new clubhouse at Austin of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs.

Mr. Brockman, wishing to do his part, is cooperating with McKinney club women in this worthwhile project. Mr. Brockman is one of the most faithful patrons of our advertising columns. His theaters never miss an issue with their publicity.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mooney of Pleasant Valley and Mrs. Annie Clark had a pleasant visit in McKinney Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. J. S. Walker and family. Mr. Walker, who is sheriff of Collin county, is the owner of five of the finest breed of saddle stock and he also maintains a Curio Den in the Masonic building, which is of unusual interest. In this den there is a fine collection of guns, horns, stuffed birds and so forth.—Garland News.

Miss Jessie Moore has returned from Melissa where she attended the bedside of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Joe Moore, who is down with the fever, but is now improving.

Uncle Johnnie Hedgcoxe, Collin pioneer, was buried at Rowlett Creek cemetery, at 1:00 o'clock this afternoon. DESERVED RECOGNITION

Recognition has come to a former McKinney girl, Miss Margaret Hughston, of Dallas, but formerly of McKinney, who has been elected, on the basis of her work in music at Texas State College for Women (C. I. A.), Denton, to an honor place in the "Who's Who" section of the Daedilian, annual college yearbook. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hughston. Eight girls were named from the senior class for outstanding work in their individual fields. Places of recognition were given to students for their work in Leadership, Physical Education, Art, Scholarship, Music, Literature, Journalism and Speech.

GOOD FOUNDATION

Along this line we might state that McKinney boys and girls are making some fine records in various colleges and universities over the state. The reason for this is the splendid foundation they get in our own McKinney Public school system. In other words, diplomas from McKinney High school assure students that they will have no difficulty getting through major colleges and universities if they will apply themselves because they are fitted here to do the work.

COMMENCEMENT

All of which reminds us that it will not be long until another graduating class will go out from the portals of old McKinney High school. "Did you know that there are only eight more days of school?" asked Max Skelton, editor of the "Lion Roar," M. H. S. student publication, and a member of the Senior class. After next week's work, Max goes on to tell us, will come final examinations and then—Commencement. The spring class is a splendid one and numbers some exceptionally bright boys and girls not only from McKinney but from all points of the county.

INVITATION

And, we are reminded that invitations will start coming through the mails within a few days, so be prepared.

THAT APRIL SHOWER

The usual April shower fell today. Starting falling about midnight last night, rainfall continued up until the time this is written. These April showers are coming with frequent regularity, it seems, although none of the showers have been more than a fraction of an inch. They are fine—if we do not have too many of them. Farmers are needing to get in their fields to plant cotton and do other much needed farm work and too much rain might cause them serious delay. With the coming of fair weather, and we hope it soon arrives, you will see a great amount of work done by our farmers and also by local gardeners and truck patch owners.

THAT SENIOR PLAY

Members of the Senior class of McKinney High urge you to be sure and keep in mind the play to be given Friday night of this week, April 27, at the L. A. Reed Junior High school. The play is entitled, "The New Coed," and, from here, it looks like it is a real honest-to-goodness story and one that you will truly enjoy. Mrs. Jack R. Ryan, sponsor of the Senior class is in charge of the production. She tells us that the cast is taking to their parts with rapidity and ease and that the presentation will go over in a big way Friday evening. You are invited.

PROLIFIC SNOW BALL BUSH HOOVER HOME

One of the prettiest homes and most beautiful yards located on Waddill street, a choice residential section of West McKinney is that of L. B. Hoover, wholesale groceryman, and wife. Just at this particular time, motorists along that street are feasting their eyes on a remarkable snowball bush in their front yard, containing about 300 blooms.

Mrs Hoover has another bush of the same kind and age in the opposite corner of her yard which only has three or four blooms open at this time.

For several years, Mrs. Hoover, who is a leading club woman and member of the McKinney Garden club, has given systematic attention to landscaping her yard and beautifying it with shubbery and flowers. Results of her artistic eye and directing work are now showing up to the best advantage at this mid-spring season of the year.

Mrs. Hoover's sister, Miss Bess Waters, a Dallas lady school teacher, owns a vacant lot adjoining the Hoover home, which is likewise beautified with shrubbery and flowers, landscaped and cared for in harmony with the Hoover premises. Both these add much to the civic attractiveness of Waddill street.

FARMERSVILLE EARLY SETTLER DIED RECENTLY

Mont King, for more than fifty years a resident of Farmersville, died Wednesday, April 19, from the effects of a heart attack. He had been suffering from paralysis for several weeks.

Mr. King came to Farmersville in an early day from North Carolina and had since resided in or near that city. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Willie Ball of Farmersville, Mrs. John Pruett of Vernon, and a son, Doc King of Vernon.

The deceased was well known for his jovial nature and friendly disposition, and leaves a large number of friends and relatives to mourn his passing.

Mrs. L. W. Horn, English teacher at DeKalb, Bowie county, for the past four years, is spending the week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Route 2, McKinney, and her father-in-law and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Horn, in McKinney. Mrs. Horn was in McKinney Saturday with her cousin, Miss Venita Morrow, and her uncle, Dr. R. E. Morrow. Mrs. Horn has been re-elected to her present position again in the DeKalb schools. She expects to finish up her master's degree work at the State university of Texas this summer.

The North and East Texas Press association meets at Commerce Saturday. Nice program. A big attendance expected.

UNUSUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL RECORD ATTENDANCE

The A. Q. Forte family of this city, consisting of father, mother, son and two daughters, have a rather remarkable Sunday school attendance record. They are members of the First Christian church, of which Dr. Clifford S. Weaver is the pastor.

Their Sunday school attendance records are as follows: ten years without missing, for the mother; twelve years for the son, Robert; fourteen years for the daughter, Miss Rachel, and thirteen years for the other daughter, Miss Rosemary.

On account of his work requiring some occasional Sunday reporting, Mr. Forte doesn't pretend to compete with his wife and children in Sunday school attendance regularity. This is a remarkable family record for Sunday school attendance without a single miss.

Robert Forte is a member of the Senior class of the Boyd High school of this city, this spring. He is an outstanding member of the high school athletic teams. He distinguished himself in basketball, football and track. His sister, Miss Rachel is a senior at the North Texas State Teachers college, at Denton, this spring, spring class, majoring in Physical Education. She has taught one year at Dump in this county to help along with her college education. She is a graduate of the McKinney High school, spring class of 1930.

The other daughter, Rosemary, is due to finish at mid-term, next year in the local high school. She has lettered three years on the McKinney High school girls' basketball team.

RECENT BRIDE IS HONORED WITH SHOWER

Mrs. J. W. Alexander, who was before her recent marriage, Miss Beatrice Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Burgess, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening by members of her Sudnay school class of the First Methodist church, of which Mrs. E. L. Burton is teacher. The shower was given in the beautiful home of Mrs. Lee Burks, on North Coleman street, with Mrs. Don W. Bagwill as co-hostess.

"Forty-two" was the diversion enjoyed during the evening, after which delicious refreshments of cream and cake were passed to sixteen members of the class. Miss Nola Bess Kluttz won high and Mrs. E. L. Burton low score.

The bride, who is one of the efficient and well-liked teachers in the McKinney public schools, was remembered with many pretty and useful gifts.

Richard Hudson, formerly of Farmersville, for the past several years, residing at Austin, writes us that Rex Waller is a candidate for state treasurer with headquarters at the Driskill hotel, Room 8, Austin. Drop in and see Dick Dick when in Austin. Fine fellow, Dick Hudson.

Homer L. Massey, secretary of the Terrell Chamber of Commerce, has been designated as the representative of the City Commission of Terrell to go to Washington to confer with P. W. A. officials in the interest of securing a loan of $162,000 to the City of Terrell for the purpose of constructing a municipal sewerage plant. Mr. Massey rendered a great service recently when he appeared before the State Highway Commission, at Austin, and secured the designation of the Terrell-Rockwall road as a State Highway. Mr. Massey is the son of T. Walter Massey, a highly respected Collin county citizen, living on Route 1, Wylie. He is regarded as a very successful Chamber of Commerce executive manager.

W. A. (Bill) Wood, the pie man and potato caip maker, gave this editor one of his nice Pecan pies. Have known Bill Wood for many years. Worked for our paper years ago as a carrier boy. Made good. Went into the grocery business on East Anthony street. Did well. Sold out to Mr. Duncan, who still runs the business. Bill went into the "pie business," making nice pies, delivering them daily to the hotels, cafes, drug stores, etc. Has he made good? We say he has. Bill is a hard worker, a good old boy and no one rejoices at his good luck and fine business more than these editors.

Members of both the Tuesday and Thursday bridge luncheon clubs of Sherman were guests of Mrs. F. D. Perkins, mother of Mrs. Jack Hill of Sherman, at her home in McKinney Thursday afternoon. A three-course luncheon was served to 20 guests. Receiving favors in the series of the Thursday club were Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Mrs. Sam Woodson and Mrs. Luke Abbett. Inasmuch as the Tuesday club does not play for favors, no prizes were given that group. The Perkins home was decorated in an abundance of spring flowers and greenery.—Sherman Democrat.

St. Michael's Catholic church of the city, located at the corner of North College and West Heard streets, is always kept in neat condition, both as to the building and surrounding church grounds. The church lot is bordered by carefully trained shrubbery and hedges, with pretty beds of Iris and other flowers and neatly trimmed Bermuda lawn. Mrs. J. L. Pfaff, wife of the owner of the Commercial hotel, gives her personal attention to the supervision of the care of this church and its pretty premises. She is a great lover of flowers and shrubbery and has an artistic eye in civic beautification work.

Tom F. Hunter, of Wichita Falls, candidate for governor, will speak in McKinney in behalf of his candidacy for the governorship of Texas, Thursday night, May 3, at 8 o'clock at the courthouse, friends of the candidate have announced here. M. B. Smith, "hot air" merchant of the Friendly Farmersville Times, was hibernating among the higher McKinney class Monday. He was accompanied by former Mayor Sid Hildreth, than whom Collin county never had a finer official or a better fellow. Both, naturally, called on these editors to get their morals polished up. And they were polished.

COTTON CARRY-OVER PRICE DEPRESSING.

The Houston Chronicle quotes a summary of the cotton problem in statistics on carryover and price, as compiled by Congressman Marvin Jones. These figures were as follows:

In 1925 carryover was 1,439,400 bales; the price was 22 cents a pound.

In 1926 the carryover was 1,503,800 bales; the price 19 cents.

In 1927 the carryover was 3,400,000 bales; the price 12½ cents.

In 1929 the carryover was 2,400,000 bales; the price 18 cents.

In 1931 the carryover was 4,300,000 bales; the price 9½ cents.

In 1932 the carryover was 6,200,000 bales; the price 5.7 cents.

In 1933 the carryover was 9,500,000 bales; the price 6½ cents.

In the face of such figures, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram declares "it would be foolish to deny the exact relation between carryover and prices . . . for a million bale carryover is something near the normal needs of the trade as a reserve for seasonal variations and when the carryover goes above that figure prices drop."

Conclusions drawn from the figures of the Star-Telegram are correct, we believe, and are summarized as follows:

"In Mr. Jones' figures for the years since 1925 it is shown generally that as the carryover increased prices progressively decreased. But it is shown also, in 1929, that when the crop was short enough to reduce the carryover temporarily, prices immediately responded with an advance to the level adjusted to the reduced carryover.

"These facts furnish the most complete justification for the administrations cotton reduction program. The reduction contemplated is often misunderstood, and misrepresented, to mean bringing American production below the normal volume wanted by the world. What it actually means is a reduction for the purpose of wiping out the surplus of production above world needs of our cotton, which surplus has been built up through a period of years and which acts at this time to no other purpose than to beat down the price of American cotton below its intrinsic value."

About 150 school chilrden, teachers and parents of Van Alstyne enjoyed their San Jacinto picnic in Finch Park Friday, April 20. It was sponsored by Mrs. D. W. Jay, Mrs. J. W. Dry and Miss Mary Lee Akin, intermediate grade teachers. This big jolly party of youngsters came in the forenoon and enjoyed their bounteous noonday meal in picnic style under the shade of these pecan trees and then in the afternoon attended the Ritz theater. The teachers are under special obligations to the popular manager, Roy Brockman of the Ritz, for special courtesies to the Van Alstyne school children. One of the teachers, Miss Akin, said to a representative of this paper: "Our same grades enjoyed our annual spring picnic in Finch Park three years ago. It is such a delightful place, and we were made to feel so welcome that we wanted to repeat the pleasure of returning again this year. Finch Park is indeed a nature beauty spot. Its advantages and beauty should attract picnickers more and more every year from over North Texas as it becomes better known to pleasure seekers."

State Senator Joe M. Moore was in McKinney, Wednesday, for a short time. He is the present State Senator from the counties of Collin, Hunt, Rains and Rockwall, but is not standing for re-election to that office. However, he is regarded as a likely winner in the race for the Lieutenant- Governorship of Texas, for which office he is making an active canvass. Senator Moore has been a power for good for his district and North Texas at the state capital during the last eight or ten years. He is regarded as one of the state's most influential and useful lawmakers and leaders for Texas development and progress.

When in doubt about your business condition, just try advertising a little more with the Daily Courier-Gazette and the Weekly Democrat-Gazette, two real home town and county papers for home town and county readers, who are interested in what you have to sell and want to know about it through their friends—these loyal newspapers. We are laboring side by side with Collin county's citizenship in the further upbuilding of this great Texas commonwealth. You, Mr. Merchant, can help them, yourself and these papers with a bit of printer's ink rightly used.

It's a nice honor coming to McKinney in Hon. Maury Hughes opening his campaign for Governor in McKinney Saturday, April 28. Gov. O. B. Colquitt opened his campaign in McKinney for Governor and was elected. Mr. Hughes, of course, would like to have the luck that Gov. Colquitt had. Come out and hear Mr. Hughes, regardless of whom you are for. He is an able man, an eloquent speaker, and to hear him will be worth your time. Give him a glad hand and a hearty welcome to our city and county.

In the recent municipal election at Roswell, New Mexico, J. E. (Jack) Moore, Democratic nominee, amassed a two-and-a-half to one majority defeat to W. B. Binns, independent candidate, in the mayor's race. Moore is a young banker of Roswell where he has lived for several years. He received 1221 of the 1740 total ballots cast. Moore was born, feared and educated in McKinney, where his mother, Mrs. Lou Moore, and a sister and a brother still reside. His wife was also born and reared here—formerly Miss Lottie Franklin, whose mother, Mrs. J. L. Franklin, also still resides here. Her father, the late J. L. (Leland) Franklin, was county auditor of this county for several years preceding his death which occured a few years ago. This paper always takes special pleasure in chronicling the successes of our Collin county boys and girls who go to other localities and states to carve their fortunes.

Editor R. C. May's paper, the Leonard Graphic, completed its forty-fifth year of publication the first week in April. The paper was launched in April, 1889, by Albert Erwin, now of Sherman. His plant consisted of an old style Washington hand press and a very limited amount of type. Successors of Mr. Erwin have been Hugh Wallace, Harve Diggs, J. C. Atteberry, the late W. A. Ownby, the late J. A. Thomas, J. T. Green, J. M. Green and R. C. May. The latter has been editor and proprietor for nineteen years.

A. J. Riddle, general manager of the Kraft-Phoenix Corporation, after a careful survey of the dairy production in Fannin County, is recommending that a Karft-Phoenix cheese plant be located at Bonham. This is a good movement. North Texas counties are now finding that they can be made into a dairy as well as an agricultural center, and they are taking advantage of it.

A small block of mother earth—just three by six, with six feet deep, holds us all, regardless of how poor, how rich, how ignorant or how smart. Once planted, we are located, for time to come. We know not when we will be called up. Guess it is a good idea, too. If we knew, we would go "buggy" very shortly.

Northwest Collin has a mineral well on the farm of former Representative Sam E. Bateman, said to be similar in qualities to the famous Tioga mineral water, at Tioga, Texas, a few miles northwest of Celina. Literally, hundreds of patients attest to the curative values of the Tioga mineral water. Collin county would deem itself fortunate if the Bateman well should prove as meritorious.

Former Representative C. H. Akin of Princeton was in the city Wednesday. He has many friends who would like to see him return in the same capacity to our state capital city again at some future time. He is a capable business man, of few words and solid integrity.

Admiration alone cannot sell your goods, Mr. Merchant. They must be properly displayed. Even then if you don't advertise and use modern merchandising methods, your business won't get anywhere. You will be rated as a failure.

Automobiles have come out with teardrop bodies, knee action, floating power and free wheeling. Now, if they will invent one with free gas, we'll be interested.

The skinflint economist is not going to be allowed to stop the bandwagon of progress."

SOUTH GRAYSON SCHOOL PICNIC AT FINCH PARK

A very enoyable San Jacinto Day picnic was held at Finch Park, April 20, by the Intermediate grades of the Van Alstyne Public school at which about 150 persons were present, including the teachers and a few persons.

Well filled baskets and boxes supplied a fine picnic dinner which was spread at noon on the long tables under the pretty big shady pecan trees at Finch park.

After the dinner had been eaten, the pupils and their teachers, parents and friends all repaired to the Ritz theater where they were shown special courtesies and favors by Manager Roy Brockman for which both the children and teachers are very grateful.

The picnic was sponsored by three teachers—Mrs. D. W. Jay, Mrs. J. W. Dye and Miss Marylee Akin.

This was a repeat Finch park picnic by the Van Alstyne school, which came here for their first one three years ago.

Finch park is an ideal location for a park with pretty, well-trimmed native forest trees, Bermuda grass lawns, landscaped garden plots, winding driveways, rustic foot bridges and inivting trysting places for the romantically inclined.

The park also has quite a collection of wild life in its zoo, which is an added source of entertainment and amusement to those frequenting this popular playground, which is a memorial established largely by the beneficence of the late Senator Henry A. Finch, whose name it honors as an enduring memorial.

The park is maintained by the city and cared for by a keeper who lives on the property.

Strangers as well as home people are always welcome.

Judge E. W. Merritt is able to come downtown again after a few day's illness. Since retiring as County Judge about fifteen months ago, Judge Merritt is devoting his attention to his private law practice. His office is in the Merritt Brick building on East Virginia street.

An appreciable increase in the congregations of most McKinney churches was noticeable Sunday, which marked the culmination of the McKinney Junior Chamber of Commerce "Go to church" campaign. The pastors in their pulpits gave expression to this drive, expressing to the Jaycees their own and the congregations appreciation. In this movement, the young men had the wholehearted support of the pastors association of which Dr. R. L. Cowan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, is president.

Mrs. W. W. McDowell, who holds a position in Austin at the State Capital, spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. Sam Burks is fast improving at her home in North Kentucky street. Mrs. Burks was critically ill for several days. Now able to be up and around the house.

Why Hospitals Use a Liquid Laxative

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. And the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. Do you know the reasons?

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right dose of a liquid laxative brings a perfect movement, and there is no discomfort at the time, or after.

The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

A properly prepared liquid laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin brings safe relief from constipation. It gently helps the average person's bowels back to regularity. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative which all druggists keep ready for use. It makes an ideal family laxative, effective for all ages, and may be given the youngest child. REV. WHEELER EXPECTS LOCATE IN VALLEY

Rev. M. F. Wheeler is at home from a five weeks sojourn in the Magic Valley of South Texas. He traveled from one end of it to the other and says it is unquestionably a marvelous section of the state. He says that an exceptionally good cabbage crop was raised down there but they are having a hard time for market. The product is cheaper perhaps than ever before. Some farmers are just discing up their cabbage heads and turning them under for fertilizer. The citrus fruit crop is very promising.

Rev. Mr. Wheeler is closing a deal for a citrus grove of oranges, grapefruit and tangarines. It is located near Harlingen. He expects to move onto it sometime later this year. He is buying twenty acres, one half of which is in grove producing trees.

Rev. Mr. Wheeler has lived at McKinney a good many years, for about fourteen years, he was County Missionary of the Baptist churches and preached in almost every school district in the county. He organized and established a number of churches and has served as pastor of several of them. He has done a great work for his master and his church and will leave a multitude of friends of his own and all other churches when he moves away from Collin county to his new home in the valley.

One of the most attractive, substantial and imposing modern brick and stone homes in the city is that of Mrs. C. G. Coraggys, corner of North College and West Tucker streets. Its prettily landscaped yard is adorned with many beautiful blooms and flowers especially at this particular season, and a variety of shrubbery. All passing along those streets at that point admire the taste and art apparent in this attractive home and its inviting premises.

Mrs. Mitchell is a native of Alabama and although eighty-one years of age, would easily pass for one not over fifty-five or sixty. She owns and runs the old plantation near Montgomery.

Montgomery, Alabama, was the seat of government for the Confederacy during the Civil War, from 1861 to 1865. W. B. Mitchell, McKinney, was born on the old plantation. Mrs. Mitchell and granddaughter will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell for some time.

Mr. Mouiden is the son of the late ex-Sheriff J. L. Moulden of Murphy where he was born and reared. Sam lived in McKinney for more than four years during his father's administration and attended high school here where he has a multitude of good friends and where he has a brother, Judge R. L. OLD PRISONER GIVES GAVEL TO M'CULLOUGH

Representative Joe W. McCullough of this county has been given a substantial hickory gavel that he greatly appreciates.

It was made from a tree that grew on the old East Texas farm of Gen. Sam Houston, at Huntsville. It was dexteriously carved by an aged prisoner, who sandpapered the gavel and handle, smoothly glazing it and then varnishing it.

The gift was prompted by the kindness and interest that Representative McCullough showed in the old prisoner ,who had been confined at Huntsville for about thirty years. Mr. McCullough met and talked with him when he visited the state prison, in March, 1933, with a group of other legislators appointed to investigate the prison system and report back their findings.

After Representative McCullough returned to the State capital at Austin, he wrote a sympathetic, friendly letter to the old prisoner, commending him for his exemplary conduct as a prisoner. The latter, to show his appreciation for this kindly interest in him by the Collin lawmaker, carved the gavel and sent it to him by the legislator of Walker county, in which the prison is located.

Mr. McCullough appreciates the gavel as a souvenir all the more because the old prisoner did not ask him for any favor, not even requesting him to use his influence with the Governor to get a parole or a pardon, neither of which Mr. McCullough has done. In fact, the latter says some of the older prisoners have been there so long that they really prefer to end their days in the prison, which has become dear to them as a home and inasmuch as they have no other home to go to or other means to support themselves if freed from their prison garo.

The Blue Front grocery in Farmersville was damaged by fire. It is owned by W. C. Cameron.

DEMONSTRATION WOMEN HOLD MONTHLY MEET

The April meeting of the Collin County Home Demonstration Council was held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Saturday, April 21, at 2 p. m. with Mrs. J. T. Isom, county chairman, presiding and with Miss Gertrude Arnold, county secretary, assisting her.

Reports were heard from the expansion, cheese show and educational committees. The expansion committee reported a total of 1,638 different families in the county, who so far this year, have received benefits of home demonstration work. Mrs. Bart Bryant of the Wetsel club, reported a successful cheese show April 7 with a desire on the part of the women for another one next year. Mrs. L. N. Cox of the Celina club reported a total of $5.70 collected from the club women to help pay a college scholarship for some 4-H club girl in the state this year. The secretary-treasurer was instructed to immediately send this money to the district vice-president of District Number 9.

Under announcements, members of each home demonstration club were assigned to help supply exhibits for the county agricultural booth at the Dallas fair this coming fall.

All women who are planning to attend the Denton Short Course May 18 are urged to give the demonstration agent a check of the number going by May 5. Miss Helen Dunlap, home demonstration agent, announced a change in the May schedule when she will meet each woman's club for the purpose of giving a pickling demonstration.

CELINA AND FRISCO VETERANS ATTEND CAMP

John Brewer and Capt. J. W. Weaver, both of Celina, attended the monthly meeting of United Spanish American War Veterans in McKinney Tuesday night. Two representatives were also present from Frisco—Wade Sapp and Capt. Bill Watson. The attendance was good, especially considering the rainy night.

Capt. Watson of Frisco and R. R. Parker of Princeton were elected delegates to the annual state encampment to be held at Brownwood, May 6-8.

Among those present at the meeting was Eilly DeBow, a blind veteran of McKinney. A. M. Russell, adjutant, and Hugh L. Kirkpatrick, quartermaster, of the local Henry A. Wiley Camp No. 29, have compiled a total of only 43 Spanish-American War veterans in the county. There are possibly 8 or 10 others in the county. Included in that listing are surviving veterans of the Spanish-American War of 1898, the Philippine Insurrection and Boxer Rebellion, covering a period of four years—1898 to 1902.

Several interesting talks relative to the local camp of interest to these Collin county veterans, whose average age is now sixty, were made by Jim P. Thomas, Capt. Bill Watson, A. M. Russell and Hugh L. Kirkpatrick.

North Church street or that portion of it between Lamar and Heard streets is now a veritable avenue of trees in almost full foliage, with limbs well trimmed up and overlapping branches above the paved thoroughfare. Motorists traveling this pretty street, therefore, pass under an almost perfect and continuous canopy. This is a beautiful drive, especially at this mid-spring season of the year. It is also a most enjoyable drive during mid-summer hot weather with the welcome shade protecting from Old Sol's blistering rays.

P.-T. A. MEETING IS INVITED TO M'KINNEY IN '37

An invitation for the Second District Texas Congress of Parent-Teacher association to celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary at its birthplace at McKinney,in 1937, was extended to the district at the Thursday morning session of the two-day P.-T. A. convention, in session at the Methodist church in Farmersville. McKinney was well represented at this annual P.-T. A. meet with officials and members of the four local P.-T. A.'s and other interested persons in attendance.

An invitation for the 1935 meeting was extended by Mrs. W. H. Barnes for the Terrell P.-T. A., of which she is president.

After Mrs. J. D. Burt, president of the Farmersville P.-T. A., welcomed the delegates, little Jimmie Jones Johnston bore to the platform a standard bearing the invitation for the silver jubilee. J. E. Blackburn, superintendend of the schools, also welcomed the visitors. Mrs. Jack M. Little of Dallas, first vice-president of the district, responded. Chaplain Charles R. Steward of Denison, sub-district of the citizens' conservation camps, was a guest. The Rev. C. L. Bowen offered the invocation.

Unique Wedding Ceremony.

Symbolizing the purpose of the home study course in the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, the Second District convention held a unique wedding ceremony Wednesday night for a large class of graduates, uniting them with parent-teacher ideals. The combination graduation and wedding ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Jack M. Little, Dallas, first vice-president of the district, and Mrs. M. A. Taylor of Bonham, fifth vice-president of the State body.

Dr. Clyce Speaks.

The convention theme, "The Child and His Community," was set forth by Dr. T. S. Clyce of Sherman, president emeritus of Austin college.

"As goes the home so goes the nation," Dr. Clyce declared. "We live in dread of racketeers because our homes have failed," he continued. "We need fewer moving pictures showing crime and broken homes and more use of the old-fashioned rod and respect for authority in the home and in the community."

The official welcome to 319 delegates and fifty-seven visitors, 152 of whom come from Dallas ,was extended at the night session, held at the high school. Editor M. B. Smith, Miss Hattie Neathery, Mrs. J. E. Blackburn and Mrs. M. A. Taylor extended greetings. Mrs. Roger Carter of Sherman, the district president, responded. Music was given by Mrs. Kay Smith, Virginia Greenwood, Martha Aston, Ruth Rowland, Beverly Best and the Buck Jones Rangers, a group of children.

Mrs. Roger Carter was virtually reelected president Thursday when her name was presented for reelection with most of the present corps by Mrs. Herman Eastland of Waxahachie. Although there are no opponents, the election routine will be held Thursday for educational purposes.

Mrs. E. R. Roberts will remain recording secretary and Mrs. Joe Bear of Denison will succeed Mrs. H. G. Tuck of Sherman as corresponding secretary. Mrs. Ellis Campbell of Wills Point will remain historian. Three new vice-presidents were elected: Mrs. Paul McMahan, Whitney; fifth; Mrs. L. L. Elam, Edgewood, sixth; and Mrs. J. G. Smith, Commerce, seventh. The other vice-presidents will serve again: Mrs. Jack M. Little Dallas, first; Mrs. J. F. Harrington, McKinney, second; Mrs. W. H. Barnes, Terrell, third, and Mrs. W. C. Kimbrough, Denton, fourth.

ROWLETT SON COMMITS SUICIDE PARENTS HOME

At an inquest held by Justice of the Peace Erwin Craus of this city over the body of Mash Davis, 38, Sunday afternoon, April 22, a verdict was returned of suicide by self-inflicted wounds in the throat with a razor at the home of the deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Davis of the Rowlett community, twelve miles southwest of McKinney.

According to testimony of other members of the family, the deceased had partaken of the noonday meal with other relatives, after which he went into an adjacent room and closed the door. Sounds as of someone struggling for breath caused an investigation and revealed the rash act committeed by the deceased son and brother, who passed away before Dr. R. L. Davis, county health officer, could arrive at the home.

The deceased is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters.

Interment took place at 4:00 o'clock this (Monday) afternoon in the Old Highland cemetery located about midway between Melissa and Anna. The Isaac Crouch funeral home of this city was in charge of the burial arrangements.

Prof. W. S. Smith of McKinney was a Plano visitor.

SON-IN-LAW MRS. J. W. HAMILTON DIES WEDNESDAY

Mrs. J. W. Hamilton received a message Wednesday night announcing the death of her son-in-law, Dr. A. P. Stewart, which occurred at his home in Lake Charles, La. The deceased had been ill for several weeks with the flu, having suffered a relapse of the malady. Definite funeral arrangements were not announced in the message to Mrs. Hamilton, but were probably held sometime Thursday.

Mrs. Stewart will be remembered as Mrs. Daisy Bolton of this city before her marriage to Dr. Stewart. She has the deepest sympathy of a wide circle of McKinney friends in the passing of her husband.

MAURY HUGHES TO OPEN CAMPAIGN HERE SATURDAY

ARRANGEMENTS PERFECTED FOR HIS OPENING ADDRESS

Arrangements are being perfected here this week for the address in this city Saturday afternoon, April 28, at 2:30 o'clock of Hon. Maury Hughes of Dallas, who opens his gubernatorial campaign at that time in this city.

Hon. F. Dudley Perkins will preside, while Mayor Joe E. Largent will give the address of welcome. The speaker will be introduced by Hon. Jewell E. Abernathy. The arrangements committee is composed of Hons. A. Hardy Eubanks, R. Fitzhugh Newsome and Senator Tom W. Perkins.

Mr. Hughes is a gifted orator, who has been engaged in the practice of law in Dallas for many years. He has frequently visited in this city and county, where he has made a large number of friends who are predicting that he will be heard by a large crowd when he speaks Saturday afternoon on the East side of the courthouse. He is expected to be accompanied to McKinney by a large delegation from Dallas as well as from other adjacent counties. His friends invite you to hear Mr. Hughes speak, irrespective of your preference in the governor's race and assure you that you will hear a clearcut discussion on all questions of vital interest to Texans today.

COLLIN FARMER WHO BELIEVES IN MOON'S INFLUENCE

A representative of this paper in talking to W. C. Dysart, farmer, living ten miles north of McKinney, while in town Thursday, stated that his corn was up to a good stand and had been plowed once. However, some farmers will have to plant over their corn on account of the seed rottening in the ground.

Mr. Dysart thinks probably that the cause of some seed perishing in the ground and the crop having to be planted over is due to the fact that the first planting was not done at the correct time.

Mr. Dysart subscribes to the theory of the moon's influence on the planting of farm seed of most every kind. He says that there are two days in each month of the year on which it is unwise to plant seed. He never trims a tree when the zodiac sign is in the heart, because it will permanently scar or scrub the tree, so trimmed at that particular time. Mr. Dysart never buds a tree when the sign is in the heart.

This same Collin farmer says that the continued showery weather and rather cold condition of the ground is delaying farmers from planting cotton. According to his belief, this may be a blessing in disguise. One of his neighbors, last year, didn't plant cotton until after the first of May, and he raised seven bales on ten acres. Cotton is essentially a warm weather seed and plant. It perishes or stagnates in cold soil.

However, he realizes that as a rule the early cotton matures more of its crop, perhaps, before the weevil and insect pests can damage it than later plantings.

Alvin Miller, Rommie Clements and Mr. Boorman, all of Princeton, are down in South Texas, harvesting their Bermuda onion crops that they have in that section of the state. We understand that new crop onions down there are bringing from 65 cents to $1.00 per crate. The recent rains in this North Texas onion growing area have been considered as favorable to our county's onion crop.

One of the prettiest verbena beds we have seen in some time is the one in front of the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Scott, 710 West Erwin street. Other pretty blooming flowers, such as Phlox, pinks and snapdragons are also to be seen in this pretty flower garden.

Candidate cards printed at this office. Phone 60.

HON. PAT M. NEFF

ETEX CHAMBER EARLY GUARD HEAR PAT NEFF

The spirit of the pioneer is leading Texas out of economic depression to a destiny that will eclipse all its glorious history, former Gov. Pat Neff, president of Baylor university, said at the mass meeting in Texarkana Sunday night, opening the eighth annual convention of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce.

As registrations at headquarters continued to run far ahead of any previous convention in the history of the East Texas chamber, Mr. Neff told of the Texas public school system that would not allow civilization to die and of her religious schools that would not permit religion to die in this state.

"The world's bravest men started to Texas back in the early '80's," Mr. Neff said. "The strongest of these reached Texas and founded our state's civilization.

"The sons and grandsons of these men are now carrying on the work started by their forefathers and the future that I see for Texas is that she shall be the pride of the nation."

Mrs. L. M. Beasley of Plano, who submitted to an operation for appendicitis last week in the McKinney City hospital, is now at home, where she is recovering nicely.

WILL J. RHEA COMMANDER NAMES ESTES

FORMER McKINNEY PASTOR APPOINTED GRAND PRELATE

Denton Knights Templar will witness an impressive ceremony within the next few weeks when a Denton divine is installed as grand prelate of the grand commandery of Texas.

The exercise is to come with the official visit to Denton commandery No. 45 by Will J. Rhea of McKinney, the state grand commander, who at the Dallas conclave last week appointed the Rev. C. W. Estes, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church at Denton, formerly of McKinney, as grand prelate.

Mr. Estes was made a Mason nearly a quarter century ago at Newton, Ill., was initiated into the Royal Arch in that state and became a Knight Templar at Hobart, Okla., in 1919.

Not only is Mr. Estes active as a minister but takes a prominent part in civic affairs, and also is president of the Denton County Jersey Cattle club.

A native of Hill county, he joined the Old Rock church near Valley Mills as a boy of 14. He was licensed as a minister in 1897 and was ordained in 1902. He was a missionary to the Chickasaw Indians at Davis, Okla., in 1900, held pastorates in Indiana and Illinois later, returned to Hobart, Okla., in 1918, then held a pastorate at McKinney and at Rollin, Mo., before coming to Denton in 1930.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron are happy over the arrival of a fine little eight-pound baby daughter that arrived in their family circle at 7:00 o'clock Friday evening, April 20, at the City hospital. Mother and babe are both doing nicely. Congratulations, George—you are entitled to that smile that you are wearing. The little miss is a granddaughter of F. M. Griffin, a highly esteemed farmer of the Foote community.

Richard Bass went to College Station Wednesday returning Thursday with a number of McKinney young men who are students in Texas A. & M. college, including Benjamin and Harry Smith, Page Johnson, Walter Price and Billy Bass. They are at home for a few days during the Ross Volunteer or spring holidays of that institution.

B. W. Welborn, who lives at Branch on his farm where he has resided for fifty years, was a business visitor in McKinney Friday.

RAYMOND HAMILTON SAFELY BEHIND BARS IN DALLAS COUNTY JAIL AFTER HIS CAPTURE AT HOWE WEDNESDAY

Raymond Hamilton, 24, notorious Dallas bandit, and his companion, T. R. Brooks, 21, of Wichita Falls, were captured at Howe, Grayson county, late Wednesday afternoon, less than two hours after their bold hold-up of the First National bank at Lewisville, in Denton county, when they escaped with approximately $1,000 of the bank's funds.

A posse of officers and citizens halted Hamilton and his sole companion, T. R. Brooks, 21, Wichita Falls, as they raced through Howe in a small sedan. All currency and silver stolen from the bank were found in the car. Although armed with automatic pistols, neither man offered any fight when cornered by the posse.

Grayson county officers actually making the arrest were Deputy Sheriffs Collier Yuery and J. S. McDaniel and Dr. John T. Hall, arms instructor of the Sherman police force.

Admits Identity.

Admitting his identity, Hamilton and his partner were taken under heavy guard to Sherman. Early Thursday morning the two men were taken in an automobile by a small army of officers to Dallas, where they were placed in the county jail for safekeeping.

The removal to Dallas was agreed to by county, State and federal officers at Sherman after General Manager Lee Simmons of the State prison system was assured by District Attorney Bob Hurt that a speedy trial will be given in Dallas. Criminal District Judge Noland Williams announced a special venire will be drawn Thursday and Hamilton will be placed on trial Monday for the robbery of the Grand Prairie bank.

The State, Hurt announced, will ask the death penalty. Texas laws provide a maximum of the electric chair for robbery with firearms.

Howard Gunter, a deputy sheriff, living at Gunter, who joined the chase, lost his life in an accident near Sherman while driving Hamilton's stolen car from Howe. The funeral will be at Gunter Thursday.

Local Highways Guarded.

Considerable interest was evinced in McKinney, following the robbery of the Lewisville bank, and after reports that the bandits had passed through Frisco at a rapid rate of speed, coming east. A half dozen or more local officers hastened out to the Frisco Highway, but Hamilton and his companion had evidently turned north at Frisco on the Preston road.

Frisco and Celina officers and citizens united in an effort to capture the despeardo. He sped through Frisco before a posse could be gathered and scurried past the city limits of Celina to evade a large posse of officers and citizens in that Northwest Collin town.

It was reported that he went from there to the Alla Hubbard community and inquired the way of a schoolboy, Robert Cruse, 15, who directed him to the nearest paved road. There were two men in the car, the boy reported.

Court Convenes

The April term of District Court convened Monday morning with Judge Wilcox on the bench, L. A. Sears, Clerk at his desk; Court Reporter James M. Muse at his post, and Deputy Sheriff Jim Douglass waiting on the court.

Grand Jury Empanneled

Judge Wilcox empanneled the Grand Jury as follows, pointing out that all sixteen of the men called for the purpose of selecting the twelve jurors for the court term were all present.

A. P. Rogers, Frisco, foreman.
A. G. Speck, McKinney.
J. Ed McGee, McKinney.
J. B. Goodner, McKinney.
W. B. Blagg, Celina.
J. M. Holbrook, Blue Ridge.
W. A. Cogwill, Nevada.
Carl Tollett, Lavon.
W. D. Hartness, Farmersville, R. 1.
J. H. Bowman, Plano.
R. H. Luscomb, Weston.
Ed West, Princeton.

* * *

Charge to Grand Jury

In his charge to the jurors, Judge Wilcox stressed the importance of the duties facing them this week and urged them to investigate all kinds of criminal charges of a felony nature.

* * *

Expresses Confidence

"I have confidence in you and that you will take such action showing that the grand jurors believe in law enforcement. Crime is prevalent over the country today. Hijackers and bank robbers are abroad. In fact it seems like crime is on the increase. Conditions are becoming intolerable. Citizens shouldn't stand for it. We as individuals should help to put down crime."

* * *

Certainty of Punishment

Declaring that we must catch the offender and punish him, Judge Wilcox said that, after many years of the bench, it was his belief that it was not so much the heavy punishment, but the CERTAINTY OF PUNISHMENT, that has the greatest influence in keeping down crime. "We must put the fear of the law into the criminal," he told the jurors.

Judge Wilcox said that although many of the crimes being committed today are not so horrible in their nature, yet it is not a very far step from the innocent boy to the vicious criminal. It is only a short route from the bootlegger to the more hardened criminal.

"Something is wrong when we permit such conditions to exist as prevail in our country today," he asserted. "Some of us are not doing our duty. It is not the job alone of the courts and the law enforcement agencies, but it is the job of our citizens as well to put an end to present conditions. It is a time when every man must do his duty. The people are entitled to protection and I call upon you and all the people to give their moral support in and out of the court room."

Enforce the Laws.

All the laws, the Judge pointed out, must be enforced and all violators must be prosecuted. Law is no respector of person, he said and he urged them to investigate all cases of a felony nature. "If you know of a crime that has been committed and you have reasonable grounds to believe that you know the guilty party, you should return an indictment and let the matter be threshed out in the court.

The Judge also urged the jurors to the utmost secrecy, paying no attention to outside influence.

PLAY IN CLASS C LEAGUE TO BE RESUMED

Play in the Collin County Class C Rural High School Baseball league has now narrowed down to three teams, with Lucas, the champion of the Southeast and Northwest Divisions, and Moreland and Wilson scheduled to meet at Valdasta tomorrow Wednesday to decide the championship of the Northeast Division. The winner of this game will meet Lucas for the Collin County championship.

The first game of the final series will be played Tuesday, May 1, at Climax.

Lucas won its way into the finals by defeating Bloomdale two straight games, and although the Bloomdale lads still have an outside chance to get into the playoff—if they defeat the winner of the Northeast Division twice and the winner there defeats Lucas twice—it is only problematical.

Bloomdale gave the powerful Lucas lads much more competition than was expected. Lucas won at Bloomdale, 3-2. Lawson of Bloomdale and Stratton for Lucas hooked up in a hurling duel. Lawson hit a homer for the Bloomdale lads and struck out ten Lucas batsmen, while Stratton, struck out eight.

At Lucas, the game was marred by errors, Lucas winning 4-3. Stratton, for Lucas, was in fine form, striking out sixteen and holding his opponents to five hits, while Lawson struck out ten and let Lucas down with seven hits.

Stratton has now run his strike out record to 93 in seven games.

CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR OPEN THEIR CAMPAIGNS

Three candidates for governor formally opened their campaigns this past week-end at widely separated points over Texas.

Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls opened his campaign at Clifton, Bosque county, in connection with his address, the Clifton State park was dedicated. This park covers 100 acres and was developed by CCC workers. It was said that 6,000 pounds of barbecue was served.

At Mexia, Senator Clint C. Small made his opening speech at the city auditorium. He urged a re-organized state constabulary, to consist of State Rangers and Higaway Patrol, properly equipped, to challenge the outlaws who menace the state from border to border.

C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls returned to the county of his nativity, to deliver his opening campaign speech, at Bonham. An appeal for universal home ownership and penisons for the aged were issues that brought cheers to the West Texas Senator.

Another candidate, Hon. Maury Hughes, of Dallas, will open his campaign Saturday afternoon, April 28, in McKinney, on the courthouse square.

Mr. Hunter has announced his campaign itinerary for the next few weeks and in looking over it, we find that he is scheduled to speak on the courthouse square in McKinney at 8:00 o'clock Thursday night, May 3.

Quincy Edwards of Westminster and Miss Inez Chambers of Rhea Mills were married Friday afternoon, April 13, at 6:00 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage, at Weston, with the pastor, Rev. A. R. Morgan, officiating. Both the bride and groom are teachers in the Rhea Mills school and have a large circle of friends.

WYLIE YOUTH FOUND DEAD IN BONHAM FIELD

Theddie Branch, 27, of Dallas, was found dead Monday afternoon in a field near Bonham, Fannin count, with a bullet hole in the back of his head. The deceased, a native of Wylie, this county, was en route to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Branch, longtime residents of Wylie, when the tragic occurrence overtook him. On a small country road, one and one-half miles from the place where his body was found, was a borrowed sedan in which he left Dallas Sunday, for a visit to his parents at Wylie.

Police are baffled how the young man met death fifty miles north of the destination for his Sunday trip. The theory was advanced that he probably had been kidnapped and robbed by a hitchhiker to whom he had given a ride. Those intimate with him told police he often declared he would never refuse a stranger a ride.

Two Fannin county farmers, whose names could not be learned Monday night, are reported to have said they saw two men walking away from the sedan about noon Sunday. This could be taken to indicate, detectives said, that his slayer had marched him across the field at the point of a pistol and then shot him from the back.

"He had no enemies that I know of," said his aunt, Mrs. Lulu Branch, of 3025 Knight. "He was an unusually quiet and inoffensive boy. He never bothered anybody and I don't see why anyone should harm him," said she.

The car in which he left on his fatal ride was loaned to him by Norman W. DeBorde, 2611 Shelby, assistant chief of the Dallas fire department. He roomed at the home of Chief DeBorde's son, C. L. DeBorde. He was last seen alive in Dallas by Miss Eloise DeBorde, daughter of Chief and Mrs. DeBorde, and with whom he has been keeping company for more than a year.

Miss DeBorde went to her brother's home and drove Branch over to the home of her parents so he could ask for the car, she said. Chief DeBorde was not there and Mrs. DeBorde loaned it to him, with her husband's permission. Miss DeBorde then went to Sunday school and young Branch started for Wylie.

Branch was born and reared at Wylie. Besides his parents, he is survived by a brother, Haskell Branch, and a sister, Dorothy Branch, both of Wylie. The body was taken late Monday to Wylie, where funeral services will be held at a time to be announced later.

Infant Son Buried In Walnut Grove Cemetery

Charles Lee, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Alexander, was laid to rest on Wednesday, April 11, at Walnut Grove cemetery. The infant passed away Tuesday at the home of his parents, in West Collin. The mother is a daughter of Bob Proffitt, of Bloomdale, while the father is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Alexander residing on the J. S. Griffis farm near Rhea Mills. The infant was the first great-grandchild, all his great-grandparents still living with the exception of one great-grandfather, J. N. Alexander, who passed away in 1912.

His great-grandparents are: Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Scott of McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Proffitt of Franklin, Mrs. J. N. Alexander of McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Dalton of Foote.

Rev. E. P. Akin, Rev. G. H. Ussery, both of McKinney, conducted the funeral services. Pallbearers were uncles of the deceased, including Asker and Houston Proffitt, Curtis and Porter Alexander.

Sid S. Johnson, who runs 320 acres of choice farm land near Prosper, has just bought another good span of mules through T. B. Watson, the mule, cattle and hog dealer of McKinney. The span are three year-old mare mules, weighing 2500 pounds. These mules wear a twenty-one size collar and are without blemish. They cost Mr. Johnson about $400 cash. The latter lives with his father. He owns 100 acres of land that he cultivates and about the same amount for his father and also 120 acres of the Cable farm. He works nothing else but choice farm mules, T. B. Watson is one of the best judges of good mules that we know of, and he handles lots of them, too.

Miss Iva Butler, an English teacher in the Farmersville High school, was in McKinney Friday for treatment from Dr. E. L. Burton, eye, ear, throat, and nose specialist, for an ear trouble. She was accompanied over by Miss Patsy Carver, a senior in Farmersville High school this year who is a daughter of Walter Carver.

The Athletic club, formerly known as the old Elks hall, owned by F. Dudley Perkins, is being nicely overhauled, repainted and put in first-class condition. The interior of the building has also been re-arranged for the Athletic club and the upstairs nicely fixed up.

$1,389,463.60 IN CASH FOR COLLIN FARMERS, RESULT OF "NEW DEAL"

Collin county cotton, wheat, corn and hog growers will receive in 1934, $1,389,463.60 in cash from the Federal government through the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, according to County Farm Agent Jack P. McCullough, who says that the rental payments for cotton alone will bring the farmers $1,164,065.

The parity payments, in which the government guarantees the farmers a cent or more per pound, will bring the farmers (at a cent a pound) $133,036.

The wheat growers, who have already received $26,000, will receive an additiinal $12,000 in 1934.

The corn and hog reduction payments will bring to the farmers in 1934, $80,362.60.

Thus, according to our county farm agent, Collin county farmers have a right to feel optimistic over the "New Deal." The above figures do not report all the benefits which they will receive throughout the year, Agent McCullough points out. The expected increase in the price of farm products, caused by the reduction program, will be the real benefits derived from the program and not what the farmers actually receive for taking a reduction on certain farm products.

* * *

Of Great Benefit.

The flow of money into Collin county will be of great help to the farmers in paying their taxes and meeting other obligations during the year.

The county farm agent says that cotton checks and corn-hog checks are not expected before some time in June. Collin county cotton contracts will be submitted to the state board the latter part of this week for approval. It is expected that they will be approved immediately. As soon as they are, and the necessary data is brought down on each contract, the contracts will be mailed to Washington for payment.

Practically one hundred per cent of the Collin county farmers signed up of their own accord to take a blanket cut of nine and a half per cent required by the State Board of Review, the county agent said.

A. in this city.

Rev. G. B. Airhart of this city has been at Stony Point all this week in a Sunday school revival. He has preached for them for the past three Sundays and will close his present meeting the coming Sunday. This is the old home church of Rev. Mr. Airhart and later, after becoming a minister, served as its pastor for ten or twelve years.

25 YEARS AGO IN M'KINNEY

FROM THE FILES OF THE DAILY COURIER-GAZETTE

(April 17, 1909.)

M. L. Phillips has returned from a business trip to Austin and Llano. He found that section of the state to be a very dry country.

W. A. and E. P. Skelton killed two big chicken snakes, just west of town, today. One measured six feet and the other, four, in length.

Dr. John T. Mantooth and Postmaster John Watkins both of Altoga were business visitors here yesterday. They are partners in the mercantile business at Altoga.

Rev. Rex. B. Wilkes, pastor of the Methodist church at Marble Falls, Burnett county, Texas, and wife are visiting McKinney relatives. Mrs. Wilkes was formerly Miss Fay Stouffer, a niece of Mrs. A. I. Burger. She was born and reared in McKinney.

Miss Laura Hight entertained the following friends in the home of her mother, Mrs. M. J. Hight, on South Wilcox street, last evening: Miss Nina Harrison, Miss Bessie Talkington, Miss Elizabeth Barnes and Miss Vic Powers.

Buford Toon, job printing artist in the Daily Courier-Gazette and Weekly Democrat-Gazette office, blew into the office this morning, with a smile upon his face likened unto a full moon on a midsummer night. He finally recovered sufficiently to say, "It's a girl."
